

Department of English, Government Women's College, Baramulla

The Department of English at Government Women's College, Baramulla, is a vibrant academic hub dedicated to fostering language proficiency, critical thinking, and literary appreciation among its students. With a commitment to excellence and inclusivity, our department offers a range of courses and activities aimed at nurturing well-rounded individuals equipped with effective communication skills and a deep understanding of literature.

Mission:

Our mission is to empower students with linguistic proficiency, literary knowledge, and critical thinking abilities, preparing them for diverse career paths and lifelong learning.

Vision:

To emerge as a center of excellence in English education, fostering creativity, empathy, and global citizenship among our students.

The Department of English has 4 staff strength for current session 2024 which include:

1. Prof Tabish Majid Wani.
2. Prof Shafia Jamal khan.
3. Prof Junaid Khalid Khan
4. Dr Nissar Ahmad Dar.

The department has approximately 2000 student strength enrolled in different sessions. The department has introduced various courses like Multidisciplinary courses and Ability Enhancement courses under NEP 2020

New courses offered under NEP 2020:

- British literature.
- American Literature.
- Indian English literature.
- Post colonial literature.
- Indian Diasporic Literature.

Bachelor of Arts BA in English Literature.

Ability Enhancement skill courses.

Functional English courses for students pursuing other disciplines

Faculty:

Our department boasts a team of dedicated and experienced faculty members who are passionate about teaching and mentoring. With their expertise in various literary genres, linguistic theories, and language teaching methodologies, they ensure a stimulating and enriching learning experience for students.

Facilities:

Well-equipped classrooms and seminar halls

Library with a vast collection of literary works and reference materials

Language laboratory for enhancing language skills

Opportunities for extracurricular activities such as debates, literary events, and workshops

Research and Publications:

Faculty members actively engage in research and scholarly activities, contributing to the academic discourse in the field of English studies. They encourage students to undertake research projects and publish their work in reputed journals and magazines.

Collaborations and Outreach:

The department collaborates with other academic institutions, cultural organizations, and industry partners to enrich the learning experience and provide students with opportunities for internships, exchange programs, and career guidance.

Community Engagement:

We believe in giving back to the community and regularly organize outreach programs, literacy drives, and social awareness campaigns aimed at empowering marginalized sections of society through language and education.